Most Unusual Way Valley Business Celebrates Earth Day...

Well Suited Offers Free Biodegradable Endangered Species Condoms on Earth Day, April 22nd

(PHOENIX) - To celebrate Earth Day and in the spirit of being eco-friendly, the sisters behind the Valley's favorite environmentally conscious recycled designer apparel shops are proud to offer shoppers one free biodegradable Endangered Species Condom while supplies last at all Well Suited locations on Earth Day, Tuesday, April 22nd.

The condoms, which are from the Center for Biological Diversity are biodegradable and feature a save the planet and protect our endangered species message.

According to the Center for Biological Diversity, taking responsibility for our reproductive decisions is part of ensuring planet and animal diversity around the globe.

“Here at Eco-Chic Consignments the environment and animals are always top concern. We sell recycled designer apparel. We support causes that are environmentally friendly and always work to save the endangered species of the planet,” said Ann Siner, founder and CEO for My Sister’s Closet, Well Suited and My Sister’s Attic. “So when we heard about these biodegradable Endangered Species Condoms it was a no brainer.”

No purchase is necessary and the condoms are limited to one per person at the Well Suited stores on Earth Day while supplies last.
